NATIONAL ART EXHIBITIONS

MATISSE – INVITATION TO THE VOYAGE

UNTIL 26 JANUARY 2025

The Fondation Beyeler in Riehen presents the first Henri Matisse retrospective in Switzerland in almost 20 years.

Matisse ranks among the most famous exponents of modern art. By freeing colour from the motif and simplifying forms, he redefined painting and brought a hitherto unknown lightness to art. With more than 70 major works on loan from prestigious European and American museums as well as private collections, the exhibition highlights the development and the wide range of the artist's pioneering oeuvre. Museo de Bellas Artes, Castello

The Museo de Bellas Artes, Castello, is well-worth the trip to visit this modern building with its contemporary exhibitions. The new avant-garde building has won several architectural awards. It was designed and built by the architects Emilio Turi3n 3lvarez and Luis Moreno Monsilla. The building is divided into four big blocks all facing a central cloister. The exhibition's topics are focused on archeology, ethnology, painting, sculpture and above all pottery from Valencia between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries. The ceramic exhibition features more than 800 objects including significantly important pieces made in Alcora, Ribesalbes and Onda.
